Hurricane Matthew Damage Assessment Numbers

Orlando, Fla. - Rick Singh, Orange County Property Appraiser, and members of his field appraisal team were out at 7am this morning to assess damage to Orange County neighborhoods caused by Hurricane Matthew. Several teams were sent out to residential properties including mobile homes. There was also a team focused on Tangible Personal Property (TPP). As a result, the approximate initial findings are: $552, 129. This number is expected to increase during the week as commercial properties and other residents report damage throughout the week.

If you have any questions about the value of damage to your property caused by Hurricane Matthew, please call (407) 836-5044. As a reminder, our office values property one year in arrears, therefore values will not necessarily be reflected in this year's assessment.
